

Rice Market & Technology Convention

09/05/2017 - 11/05/2017

Miami - Estados Unidos

The Rice Market & Technology Convention (RMTC) is an annual event that provides an unprecedented program packed with world-class economists, scientists and other industry experts. Additionally, RMTC hosts a series of meetings, workshops and case studies, in which all conference delegates will have a chance to engage in conversations with experts from around the world. Brazilian Rice is an event sponsor and will give a presentation and have a booth at the convention.
