

China Mission 2015

02/11/2015 - 11/11/2015

Nanning (Guangxi) - China

Currently, China is a major producer of sugar, but even with its large capacity, all of its production has the sole purpose of supplying the enormous Chinese domestic market. The information we have on this sector are scarce, therefore we find the need to prospect this market seeking to expand the area of operation of Brazilian companies abroad, seeking new opportunities and the ability to form new partnerships.
