

UNFCCC COP 21

07/12/2015 - 12/12/2015

Paris - França

It will be held in Paris by the end of next year a great international conference (COP 21), which agenda is to come to a global agreement on climate changes, coming into force in 2020. This new agreement will replace the Kyoto Protocol, from 1997, that reached to disappointing results.
