Festival de Cannes 2016

11/05/2016 - 22/05/2016

Cannes - França

One of the oldest and most traditional festivals in the world, the Cannes Film Festival receives the Marché du Film, considered the most important international market of the audiovisual sector, involving development, production and distribution of the content, in every distribution platform. The event usually gathers more than 10 thousand participants.
