Expo West 2017

09/03/2017 - 12/03/2017

Anaheim - Estados Unidos

The four-day event continues to be the leading trade show for the natural, organic and health products industry, attracting over 77,000 industry professionals and 3,000 exhibits. On average, 20% of participants will be first-time exhibitors. The expo always takes place in the first semester of the year because it introduces new trends to the market. A parallel event to the expo features three days of technical seminars and product launch presentations.
