

FESTIVAL DE CANNES

17/05/2017 - 28/05/2017

Cannes - França

One of the oldest and most traditional film festivals in the world, the Cannes Film Festival hosts the Marché du Film, which is considered the most important international event for the audiovisual industry. The event involves the development, production and distribution of content on all distribution platforms. It also brings together around 10,000 participants.
