

Feira da Indústria Latino-Americana de Aves e Suínos

13/05/2015 - 15/05/2015

Florianopolis - SC

Avesui is a fair and conference that brings together key players in the production chain of poultry and pork rendering plants. Participants include food manufacturers, pet food, machinery and equipment, inputs and raw materials. The support of Apex-Brasil in the participation of companies in international fairs aims to promote and sell Brazilian products and services. Exhibitors have the opportunity to connect with buyers, opinion leaders and international audience.
