

National Coffee Association Annual Convention 2017

23/03/2017 - 25/03/2017

Austin - Estados Unidos

The National Coffee Association's (NCA) annual convention takes place in Austin, Texas. The event brings together major players in the American coffee industry. International visitors include opinion makers, coffee equipment suppliers, and national sales representatives, among others. The 2017 edition is expected to attract around 552 participants. Several issues will be addressed during presentations at the event, including human rights, marketing, the futures market and climate change.
